

Appendix: Information Sharing with New Zealand Police, the Ministries of Health, Justice, Social Development and Education and Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children

Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children is the lead agency for the Information Sharing Agreement for Improving Services for Vulnerable Children (AISA). The Ministry must report annually, in its annual report, on the following information specified by the Privacy Commissioner.

This is the fifth report on the AISA. It covers the period 1 July 2019 to 30 June 2020.

Information sharing between the New Zealand Police, Ministries of Health, Justice, Social Development and Education, and Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children

Description	Progress
Number of referrals made to The Hub	1012
Number of individuals whose information is shared under the agreement, or where the number is not known, the best estimate of that number	476
Number of vulnerable children identified <sup>1</sup>	986
Number of referrals (by pathway):
Universal services	6
Care and Protection	111
Children's Team <sup>2</sup>	865
Number of children successfully exited with outcomes achieved	752
Number of complaints received about an alleged interference with privacy under the agreement and the disposition of those complaints	0
Number of reported instances of improper access to/use of information by Hub worker	0
Amendments to the AISA	0

Qualitative feedback on the AISA and commentary on audits

No audits have been conducted on the AISA in 2019/20

<sup>1</sup> Vulnerable Children' is defined as any child that does not result in a 'no further action' by The Hub.

<sup>2</sup> Referred to one of the Children's Teams. All ten Children's Teams will be transitioning to local providers by June 2021, with one team having completed its transition to a local provider in November 2019.