

Appendix: Information Sharing with New Zealand Police, the Ministries of Health, Justice, and Education and Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children

Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children is the lead agency for the Information Sharing Agreement for Improving Services for Vulnerable Children (the AISA). The Ministry must report annually, in its annual report, on the following information specified by the Privacy Commissioner.

This is the third report on this AISA. It covers the period 1 July 2018 to 30 June 2019.

Information sharing between the New Zealand Police, Ministries of Health, Justice, and Education, and Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children

Description	Progress
Number of referrals made to The Hub	1751
Number of individuals whose information is shared under the agreement, or where the number is not known, the best estimate of that number	1548
Number of vulnerable children identified ¹	1691
Number of referrals (by pathway):
Universal services	18
Care and Protection	145
Children's Team ²	1588
Number of children successfully exited with outcomes achieved	910
Number of complaints received about an alleged interference with privacy under the agreement and the disposition of those complaints	0
Number of reported instances of improper access to/use of information by Hub worker	0
Amendments to the AISA	0

Qualitative feedback on the AISA and commentary on audits

No audits have been conducted on the AISA in 2018/19.

¹ Vulnerable Children' is defined as any child that does not result in a 'no further action' by The Hub.

² Referred to one of the Children's Teams. All ten Children's Teams will be transitioning to local providers by June 2021, with one team completing its transition to a local provider in November 2019.