To the interviewer:

PROMPT: At the beginning of the telephone call, example:

- "Hello/Kia ora, I am Iain Matheson. I am calling to interview you for the Oranga Tamariki Strengthening Families Research", etc.
- "The interview will take about 40 minutes long. Before we begin the interview, do you have any questions on the information sheet that was provided to you by Oranga Tamariki?"
- "And do you still consent to participating in this interview?"
- "And are you alright with me voice-recording this interview?"
- "Just to remind you that this interview is confidential, and that your name and the names of anyone you mention will be removed from the transcripts".

CONSENT: At the beginning of the interview, review the following and record consent in the checkboxes in the top-right of this consent form.

- Does the participant still consent to being interviewed?
- Does the participant still consent to the voice recording?
- Has the participant received, read and understood the information sheet?
- Does the participant understand the purpose of the research and that it is voluntary?
- Does the participant understand that the interview is confidential, and names and personal identifiers will be removed from the transcripts?
- Does the participant understand that they don't have to answer a question if they wish and/or that they may ask for the voice recording to be paused or stopped?
- Does the participant understand that the voice recording will be deleted as soon as the transcripts are completed?
