Disability strategy hui / meeting consent form

November 2022

About this document

This document is from Oranga Tamariki – Ministry for Children.

Oranga Tamariki – Ministry for Children is the part of the Government that works to make things better for children.

Oranga Tamariki is holding hui / meetings as part of making a disability strategy.

A strategy is like a plan for making things better.

Oranga Tamariki is asking you to come along to the hui / meeting.

This document has a form to fill in to say you agree.

This kind of form is called a consent form.

Deciding if you take part

You do not have to take part in the disability strategy mahi / work if you do not want to.

You can change your mind about taking part at any time.

You do not have to tell us why you changed your mind.

If you do not want to be part of the hui at any time you can:

- leave the hui / meeting
- ask for a break.

You can also decide which part of the hui / meeting you want to take part in.

You can choose:

- which questions you want to talk about
- not to answer some questions.

Keeping each other safe

If you say something at the hui / meeting that makes other people think you may not be safe the person running the hui / meeting will talk to you.

They may tell someone else who can give you support.

If you feel upset at the hui / meeting you can tell the people running the hui / meeting.

They will find the right person to support you.

Keeping information private

Oranga Tamariki will:

- write down things you said at the hui / meeting
- keep all this information in a safe place
- not put your name on anything you share with them at the hui / meeting
- try not to collect information that people could use to find out who you are.

There are rules to follow about keeping information.

Oranga Tamariki has to keep all the information they get from the hui / meetings until Archives New Zealand says it is okay to remove it.

Archives New Zealand is part of the Government that looks after keeping information safe.

Oranga Tamariki Zealand will remove all this information once Archives New Zealand says it is okay.

The Privacy Commissioner checks information is being looked after in the right way.

You can contact the Privacy Commissioner if you are worried about what happens with your information.
